NEWLY QUALIFIED GP EVENING

Wednesday 25th October 2017

The Bristol Nuffield Hospital

The Chesterfield, 3 Clifton Hill, Bristol, BS8 1BN

7.00pm buffet supper

Start at 7.30pm and close by 9.00pm

FREE to members and non-members!

- Monthly evening sessions specifically for GPs in the first 5 years after completing GP training.
- Facilitated, confidential small group environment for shared learning and peer support.
- Coordinated by Dr Pamela Curtis and Dr Umber Malik, NQGs with insight into all the issues and challenges of starting work after training including the clinical work, being a locum, getting through appraisal and your accounts and finances.

The format and content of these monthly sessions can be flexible depending on the needs and wishes of the group but will incorporate reflection on significant events and clinical practice, hot topics, external speakers, generic skills, career planning, preparation for appraisal...

Established NQGP groups are very welcome to attend and use the venue as a pleasant, confidential meeting space to work independently in your group.

This month:

- 30 minutes informal Q&A

Dr Murli Krishna, Consultant in Pain Medicine

- Small group discussion – “Surviving and thriving in your first two months as a NQGP”

Facilitators: Dr Pamela Curtis and Dr Umber Malik
